

---

The CCUV4 Working Meeting No.1

Theme:

The potential role of project partners regarding technologies and equipment for Green Deal strategies in V4 countries.

Place:

The Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering, Institute of Process Engineering
Námestie slobody 17, 812 31 Bratislava, Slovakia – room 412

Term:

Friday 27.05.2022, 9:00 - 13:00

Content:

Introduction of research and science activities demonstrating fundamental scopes and results of research areas of the participant closed to Green Deal strategies and applications to reach low-carbon industries.

Programme:

➤ The open-public part:

8:30 – 9:00 – Registration of participants.

9:00 – 9:05 – Working meeting opening.

9:05 – 9:35 – The CTU partner as a player in R&D strategies to reach the low-carbon industry.

9:35 – 10:05 – The pivotal role of STU partner in R&D strategies for Green Deal applications.

10:05 – 10:35 – The TUL as the crucial R&D partner to reach Green Deal strategies.

10:35 – 11:05 – The introduction of UM partner's R&D activities for low carbon industries.

11:05 – 11:30 – Refreshment, discussion with participants.

11:30 – 13:00 – The tour in STU partner laboratories, closure of the Workshop.

➤ The private part of the project board:

13:00 – 14:00 – Planning CCUV4 Workshop in Prague (9/2022).

Contact on local organizer:

assoc. prof. Ing. Peter Peciar, PhD.

Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering, Institute of Process Engineering
Námestie slobody 17, 812 31 Bratislava

M: +421 904 589 081, E: peter.peciar@stuba.sk

